The Championship Wimbledon

Spacious and sleek, 'The Gatsby Club' will provide an entertaining option to impress all your guests at Wimbledon with its cutting edge, super-styled French design. The double-height glass-fronted space features Eames-inspired furnishings, embodying the redefinition of the very best in sporting hospitality.

Mix nail biting tennis action with an opportunity to socialise and unwind . Enjoy culinary delights from Michelin-starred guru Albert Roux's exclusively designed menu.

2012 was an unforgettable year for an amazing tennis action from some usual suspects winning their 17th and 14th Grand slam titles respectively. Roger Federer won the men's final against Andy Murray and Serena Williams beat Agnieszka Radwanska in three hard fought sets.

Martina Navratilova

One of the greatest female athletes of all time, Martina Navratilova took women's tennis to an entirely new level with her speed, aggression, and flexibility. A left-hander with a magnificent backhand volley and a superb overhead, she amassed a record nine Wimbledon singles titles in her prime years and secured 59 majors in total.

We can get a special meet & greet with Martina Navratilova and she will spend an hour chatting with the guests. She can also do a coaching session on one of the smaller courts, on request.
